

Yeah But...

What is the most important thing to you? What is it that you strive for more than anything else?

- Is it to be happy?
- Is it to have joy in your life?
- Is it money?
- Is it power?

The list goes on. We need to decide for ourselves because this can become the driving force in our lives. I know people that would rather be right than happy. I know people that have to have power over friends. I know people that strive for money at the cost of relationships.

It is important for us to know what our driving force is. As for me, it is joy, happiness, love and to feel comfortable in my own skin. We make choices that determine our direction and happiness.

The “Yeah But...” here is – What is your direction and are you on the right path?
